Gender stereotypes for women are formed by unfair beliefs that all men and women are the same. This discrimination leads to certain effects such as how men expect women to do housework, take care of the children, and take on a passive role. Similar gender stereotypes are seen in “ A Jury of Her Peers ” by Susan Glaspell. In this short story, the murder of Mr. Wright was investigated by a group of men and women in Mr. Wright ’ s home.

List of Gender Stereotypes | HealthGuidance

How do gender stereotypes affect people? A stereotype is a widely accepted judgment or bias about a person or group — even though it 's overly simplified and not always accurate. Stereotypes about gender can cause unequal and unfair treatment because of a person 's gender. This is called sexism. There are four basic kinds of gender stereotypes:

Imitation of Life represents race and gender role stereotypes as an answer to the division of these two roles. This film shows a lot of the film 's drama between women and the relationship between a mother and daughter. In the film, one can see the stereotypes between the "mammy" and the "tragic mulatto", a mixed-race person, as ...
