by Smith Wigglesworth. Christ's resurrection power is keeping things alive; nothing but resurrection can displace that which is dead. He came forth. He came forth to be life and power that we might be able to loose the things that were bound, that His glory might be evidenced. There was a dear woman, her heart was bad, poor soul, her feet were swelled.

I certainly had both reactions to reading Smith Wigglesworth: The Secret of His Power by Albert Hibbert (Harrison House, Tulsa Okla. 1982). The story of Smith Wigglesworth's miraculous healing ministry is breathtaking. But even more impressive to me was the record of his sensitivity to the Holy Spirit's leading.
