Pre-K-8 elementary educational resources for teachers, students, and parents.

Schools seek extraordinary individuals who can rescue education from its current challenges before they reach meltdown proportions. Qualified applicants must be able to open up, share and learn from students, parents, and colleagues. Understanding powerful teaching ideas a plus. Must be able to work under extreme deadlines. Must be good with children. Persons resistant to reflection and change, or having low expectations, need not apply. "I wish I'd had a book like this when I started my teaching career 35 years ago. I could have saved myself so much anguish and done an infinitely better job for my students if I hadn't had to discover these gems of collective wisdom on my own in the 'school of hard knocks.'" Larry Ainsworth The insights, the strategies, and the sheer energy in Extraordinary Teachers: Teaching for Success will guide and inspire you, whether you're teaching for the first time or the twenty-fifth time. This fun-to-read and practical guide includes all you need to become an extraordinary teacher. The Leadership and Learning Center provides world-class professional development services, cutting-edge research, and innovative solutions for educators and school leaders who serve students from pre-kindergarten through college.
