Simple phrases with short words. Speed building was a simple but painful process at times. Plateaus occurred frequently and were difficult to break through. The best technique was testing myself at the higher speeds - and probably failing - but this made the lower speeds seem slower and helped me pass those tests.

Teeline Shorthand - My Journey To 100 wpm

Teeline is supposed to be an easy-to-learn style of shorthand (as opposed to Gregg or Pitman), as almost all of the "letters" are based on their English equivalents (whereas Gregg and Pitman are phonetic).

Following on from the "Teeline Gold Course Book", this is intended to develop students' speed. The book should enable teachers to structure their classes, once they have introduced the basic Teeline theory, by reviewing and extending the theory. It also develops the theory of word groupings.

BakerWrite Speed Writing enables people to learn a new system in a matter of hours and become proficient within weeks. This book is laid out in six easy-to-follow lessons that take about an hour each. Practical guided exercises, with full answers, are included in each chapter and each session is rounded off with a dictation passage.

Teeline Gold Word List contains the recommended Teeline outlines for over 12000 words--the sorts of words that might be expected to appear fairly frequently in non-technical material. This edition also has appendices of medical and legal words, as well as countries, major towns and cities world-wide and common currencies.

Composition Notebook Pitman Shorthand Paper 'Steno pads' or Steno paper is ruled down the center of the page to help the writer work quickly. Instead of using the full length of the book, they write in the first column to the middle line which saves time on their hand traveling across the whole line. Then they use the second column. A trained shorthand writer can write as fast as people can speak which makes it ideal for taking dictation. Shorthand is still sometimes used by secretaries and secretarial schools but also by closed captioners, by court reporters and by journalists and news reporters. It may also have military and law enforcement use or be used by anyone else who has to take notes fast. Have fun & enjoy this Notebook.

This student book includes an introductory section to outline important principles and theory to give students a firm foundation for learning. It provides a range of practice exercises to offer learners drill materials from 50 WPM to 100 WPM designed especially to build their speed and fluency.

Aimed at journalism students, this work concentrates on the key terms and phrases they will encounter in their careers.

Teeline Shorthand Made Simple is suitable for the self-learner as well as for class use. It covers the requirements of all shorthand courses: Teeline is accepted by most of the relevant examining bodies, including the Royal Society of Arts and the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry. It is the system taught at the BBC secretarial training school and is accepted by the National Council for the Training of Journalists. The construction of Teeline is such that it is readily adaptable to foreign languages and it is therefore ideal for those who intend to become bilingual secretaries.[NP] Adopted as an official textbook by the National Council for the Training of Journalism.

This book is designed for use in a classroom or for self-study. By following these short simple chapters you'll be shorthand literate in no time at all.

George Lorimer's 'Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son' is a timeless collection of Gilded Age aphorisms from a rich man - a prosperous pork-packer in Chicago to his son, Pierrepont, whom he 'affectionately' calls 'Piggy.' The writing is subtle and brilliant. Lorimer later followed this best-seller up with 'More Letters from a Self-Made Merchant.'
